Independent Examiner’s Report to the Trustees

I report on the accounts of Tamwed for the year ended 8th. May 2009 which were made available to me on 6th. July 2009.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity’s trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity’s trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2)) of the Charities Act but that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 43(3)a of the Act
- To follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43(7)(b) of the Act; and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner’s report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and the seeking of explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner’s statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with s41 of the Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the act have not been met: or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
